

Bob And The Curse

Once upon a time there lived a man named Bob. He loved green apple flavored things; slushies, apples, and candy. One day Bob had a spell put on him saying he could not eat anything with green apple flavor.

Bob was mad and sad. Then magic genii named Elmo gave him 3 tasks to solve. If he solved all of them Elmo would brainwash the person who put the spell on Bob.

The tasks were to answer 3 questions. They were how tall, how old, and how much Elmo weighed. Bob said 6 foot 6 because that is how tall he was. He guessed 200 pounds because that's how much he weighed and He guessed 16 years old because that's how old he was.

He guessed Right and the spell was broken! The next day Bob celebrated by eating 30 green apples. He also found out that his evil twin had put the curse on him, and he had disappeared.
